

Bio for Tim Hall

Tim Hall is a nationally recognized entertainer, magician, mind reader and communicator. Simply put, Tim demonstrates a mix of talents and skills that are unique in the entertainment industry. Tim combines his talents for magic, mind reading and entertainment with extensive speaking and communication skills.

At the age of eight, Tim became fascinated with the art of magic and how it could delight others and bring them together in a positive and memorable way. A jury of colleagues and peers twice named him "Magician of the Year". In addition, Tim has been honored to perform at the world-renowned Magic Castle in Los Angeles

Tim received a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications at University of Maryland and worked in the film and television industry for six years. From there, Tim focused on his presentation skills, as a sales representative and senior trainer with Bell Atlantic, now Verizon Communications. There, he designed and facilitated highly engaging and interactive sales, communication and customer service training to audiences within Bell-Atlantic, as well as value-added workshops to diverse clients.

Since then, Tim has dedicated his life to perfecting his passion, performing for thousands of individuals and companies around the nation.

Today, Tim Hall works as a full-time entertainer, magician, mind reader and speaker. He has performed for hundreds of companies and thousand of individuals around the country.

His entertainment and speaking career have opened many wonderful doors for him.

Tim has met or performed at functions for many famous celebrities including Jay Leno, Bill Clinton, George Bush, blues singer BB King, actor Matt Damion, artist Andrew Wyeth, many top corporate executives, just to name a few.